SAUCE

Ingredients

- 2.5 cups chicken stock see
- 0.3 cup flour
- 6 tablespoons butter unsalted ()
- 1 cup wine

Equipment

- bowl
- frying pan
- sauce pan

- whisk
- sieve
- roasting pan
- spatula

Directions

- Pour off the drippings from the roasted turkey into a small heatproof bowl.
- Let sit for a few minutes for the fat to rise to the top, then skim the fat off with a spoon and discard; set the drippings aside.
- Place the roasting pan across two burners over medium heat.
- Put the onion and celery from inside the roasted turkey, along with the roasted turkey neck, in the pan. Scrape up any browned bits from the bottom of the pan with a flat spatula.
- Add the wine or sherry while scraping the bottom of the pan and simmer until reduced by half.
- Add the reserved drippings back to the pan.
- Pour the mixture through a strainer set over a medium heatproof bowl and set aside. Discard the solids from the strainer. Melt the butter in a medium saucepan over medium heat. When it foams, sprinkle the flour evenly over it.
- Whisk the flour and butter together and cook, stirring occasionally, until the mixture (known as a roux) turns the color of peanut butter, about 5 to 7 minutes. While whisking continuously, slowly add the chicken stock or broth and the strained pan juices. Bring the mixture to a simmer and cook, being sure to whisk at the edges of the pan, until the gravy thickens slightly.
- Add salt and pepper to taste.
