Ingredients

- 1 halves chicken breast
- 1 cup chicken broth canned
- 2 teaspoons dijon mustard
- 0.3 cup wine dry white
- 0.3 cup flour for dusting all-purpose
- 2 tablespoons parsley fresh finely chopped
- 0.5 teaspoon kosher salt
- 3 navel oranges

- 4 servings olive oil
- 1 small onion thinly sliced
- 0.3 teaspoon pepper

Equipment

- bowl
- frying pan
- knife
- ziploc bags

Directions

- Trim tops and bottoms off 2 oranges. Using a small, sharp knife, cut off peel, removing as much of the bitter white pith as possible. Working over a bowl, cut in between membranes to release orange segments. Squeeze juice out of membrane and squeeze remaining orange to get 1/2 cup juice. Set aside segments and juice separately.
- In a large, resealable plastic bag, combine flour, 1/4 tsp. salt and 1/8 tsp. pepper.
- Add chicken breasts and shake to coat; shake off excess flour.
- In a large nonstick skillet, heat oil over medium-high heat.
- Add chicken, skinned side down, and cook for 4 minutes. Turn and cook until chicken is just firm to the touch, about 4 minutes longer.
- Transfer chicken breasts to a plate.
- Add onion and wine to pan and cook, stirring, until wine is evaporated.
- Add broth and reserved juice and boil, stirring occasionally, until sauce is reduced by half and onion is tender, about 5 minutes. Stir in mustard and remaining 1/4 tsp. salt and 1/8 tsp. pepper.
- Return chicken to skillet and cook, turning to coat, for 1 minute.
- Transfer to plates.
- Add reserved orange segments to sauce, then spoon sauce over chicken.
- Sprinkle parsley on top.
