Ingredients

- ☐ 4 carrots quartered cut into 2-inch lengths
- ☐ 1.3 cups chicken broth low-sodium homemade canned
- ☐ 1 teaspoon dill dried
- ☐ 2 eggs
- ☐ 4 servings pepper black
- ☐ 2 tablespoons juice of lemon
- ☐ 2 tablespoons olive oil

- ☐ 1.5 cups orzo pasta
- ☐ 4 chicken breast boneless skinless ()

Equipment

- ☐ bowl
- ☐ frying pan
- ☐ whisk
- ☐ pot
- ☐ aluminum foil

Directions

- ☐ In a large stainless-steel frying pan, heat 1 tablespoon of oil over moderate heat. Season the chicken breasts with 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/8 teaspoon pepper and add to the pan. Cook until browned, about 5 minutes. Turn the chicken; add the broth, dill, and 1 1/4 teaspoons salt. Bring to a simmer, reduce the heat, and simmer, partially covered, until the chicken is just done, about 4 minutes.
- ☐ Remove the chicken and cover lightly with aluminum foil to keep warm. Set aside the pan with the broth.
- ☐ Meanwhile, in a large pot of boiling, salted water, cook the orzo for 6 minutes.
- ☐ Add the carrots and continue cooking until the orzo and carrots are just done, about 6 minutes longer.
- ☐ Drain and toss with the remaining 1 tablespoon oil and 1/8 teaspoon each salt and pepper.
- ☐ In a medium glass or stainless-steel bowl, beat the eggs, lemon juice, and 1/8 teaspoon of pepper until frothy. Bring the chicken broth back to a simmer and add to the eggs in a thin stream, whisking.
- ☐ Pour the mixture back into the pan and whisk over the lowest possible heat until the sauce begins to thicken, about 3 minutes. Do not let the sauce come to a simmer, or it may curdle.
- ☐ Put the orzo and carrots on plates and top with the chicken and sauce.
- ☐ Wine Recommendation: Lemon and dill will work best with a full-flavored white wine with decent acidity. Try one from the southern part of Burgundy such as a Mcon or Pouilly-Fuiss (both made from chardonnay grapes).
