Ingredients

- 6 servings flour
- 2.5 tablespoons canola oil divided
- 3 large eggs
- 1 tablespoon parsley fresh italian minced
- 6 large chicken thighs boneless skinless (each 5 ounces)
- 2.5 tablespoons butter unsalted divided
- 4 cups bread fresh organic crustless () (preferably)

Equipment

- frying pan
- baking sheet
- aluminum foil
- spatula
- pie form

Directions

- Cutlets can be made up to 1 day ahead. Refrigerate wrapped in plastic.
- Place large scoop of flour in shallow dish (such as pie dish). Beat eggs and parsley in another shallow dish to blend.
- Place 2 cups breadcrumbs in third shallow dish. Unwrap 1 chicken cutlet and sprinkle all over with salt and pepper. Coat cutlet completely with flour, then egg mixture, then breadcrumbs.
- Transfer cutlet to rimmed baking sheet. Repeat with remaining chicken cutlets, adding more flour and breadcrumbs as needed.
- Divide half of butter and half of oil between 2 large skillets; melt butter with oil over medium-high heat.
- Add 3 cutlets to each skillet. Cook until coating is golden brown and crisp on bottom, about 3 minutes. Using spatula, transfer chicken to sheet of foil. Divide remaining butter and remaining oil between skillets; swirl to melt butter. Return chicken, browned side up, to skillets. Sauté until bottoms are browned and chicken is cooked through, about 3 minutes longer.
- Transfer chicken to plates.
- Serve with Frisée-Apple Salad.
- A medium-bodied Côtes du Rhône would be a good choice with the schnitzel. Try the Perrin & Fils 2007 "Réserve" Côtes du Rhône, a wine with blackberry, licorice, and herbal notes. At just $8 a bottle, it also happens to be an incredible bargain.
