Ingredients

- 9 cups beef stock low-sodium homemade
- 3 tablespoons marjoram dried
- 6 tablespoons olive oil
- 24 cups onion yellow thinly sliced

Equipment

Directions

- Add the beef stock and marjoram and continue cooking for about 1 hour and 15 minutes. The onions should be light brown and shiny, cooked way down and stewy.
- Allow the onions to cool to room temperature and spoon into six 1-pint resealable freezer bags. If you use containers, be sure to leave about 1 inch of headspace, as the onions will expand some as they freeze.
- Place in the back of the freezer, where it is the coldest: 1° F is ideal.
- Defrost the onions in the refrigerator. Refrigerate after defrosting and use within a few days.
