Ingredients

- 6 cups beef broth
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 0.5 pound chick peas dried
- 0.5 cup cilantro leaves fresh chopped
- 1 garlic clove minced
- 1 teaspoon ground cumin
- 2 cups heavy cream

- 0.5 small onion diced
- 6 servings salt and pepper to taste
- 3 scallions finely chopped

Equipment

- food processor
- bowl
- ladle
- pot
- blender

Directions

- Place a medium soup pot over medium heat.
- Add the butter, onions, scallions, garlic, ground cumin, salt and pepper. Cook until the onions are soft and translucent, about 5 minutes.
- Drain and rinse the chickpeas and add them to the pot with the beef broth. Bring the pot to a boil over high heat, and then reduce heat to low, cover, and cook at a simmer until the chickpeas are tender about 2 hours. In a blender or food processor, puree the soup in batches, leaving some texture, and return the soup to the pot.
- Add the heavy cream and chopped cilantro. If the soup is too thick, thin it with water. Ladle the soup into bowls and garnish each bowl with chickpeas and cilantro.
