- 1 medium onion yellow

Equipment

- Drain in a colander and reserve the bowl (no need to wash); set the bowl aside.
- Place the beans, bacon, and onion in a slow cooker.
- Whisk the remaining measured ingredients in the reserved bowl until combined.
- Pour into the slow cooker and stir until thoroughly combined. Cover and cook on either high or low heat until the beans are tender and the liquid thickens slightly (it will thicken more as it cools), about 6 hours. Taste and season with salt and pepper as needed.
