Ingredients

- 0.3 cup wine dry white
- 2 medium fennel bulb trimmed
- 1 teaspoon fennel seeds
- 3 garlic clove smashed
- 0.5 teaspoon juice of lemon fresh to taste
- 0.5 cup chicken broth reduced-sodium
- 2 tablespoons olive oil extra virgin extra-virgin

- 1 pound pork tenderloin
- 2 tablespoons butter unsalted cut into pieces

Equipment

- frying pan
- oven
- kitchen thermometer
- stove
- kitchen towels
- mortar and pestle
- cutting board

Directions

- Preheat oven to 350°F with rack in middle.
- Crush fennel seeds with a mortar and pestle or wrap in a kitchen towel and crush with bottom of a heavy skillet.
- Pat pork dry, then sprinkle with crushed fennel seeds and 1/2 teaspoon each of salt and pepper.
- Cut fennel bulbs lengthwise into 1/2-inch wedges.
- Heat oil in a 12-inch oven-proof heavy skillet over medium-high heat until it shimmers. Brown pork on all sides, about 6 minutes total, then transfer to a plate. Sauté garlic and fennel wedges in skillet until fennel is golden brown, about 6 minutes.
- Add wine, stirring and scraping up brown bits, then stir in broth and butter. Put pork on top of fennel and transfer skillet to oven. Roast until an instant-read thermometer inserted into center of pork registers 145 to 150°F, about 15 minutes.
- Transfer pork to a cutting board and let rest 10 minutes.
- Meanwhile, transfer skillet to stovetop (handle will be hot) and boil, stirring occasionally, until most of liquid has evaporated. Stir in lemon juice and 1/4 cup chopped fennel fronds. Thinly slice pork and serve over fennel with sauce.
