Ingredients

- 1 coconut or
- 1 scotch bonnet peppers whole green
- 1 scotch bonnet peppers whole green
- 5 teaspoons kosher salt
- 6.5 ounces kidney beans dried red
- 4 cups rice long-grain (not converted)
- 4 cups rice long-grain (not converted)
- 2 spring onion whole trimmed

- 2 thyme sprigs fresh
- 2 cups water
- 5 cups water

Equipment

- bowl
- sauce pan
- oven
- knife
- sieve
- blender
- peeler
- metal skewers
- cleaver

Directions

- Simmer kidney beans in 4 cups water in a 5-quart saucepan, covered, until beans are almost tender, about 1 1/4 hours (do not drain).
- Meanwhile, preheat oven to 400°F.
- Pierce 2 softest eyes of coconut with a metal skewer or small screwdriver and drain liquid.
- Bake coconut on middle of oven 15 minutes. With a hammer or back of a heavy cleaver, break shell and remove flesh, levering it out carefully with screwdriver or point of a strong knife.
- Remove brown membrane with a sharp paring knife or vegetable peeler, then cut coconut into small pieces.
- Purée coconut with hot water in a blender and transfer to a bowl (use caution when blending hot liquids). Cool purée to lukewarm and pour through a fine-mesh sieve into a bowl, pressing hard on solids. Working over same bowl, squeeze small handfuls of solids to extract as much additional milk as possible.
- Add water if necessary to total 2 cups liquid.

- Stir coconut milk into almost-tender beans along with salt, scallions, thyme, and chile, then simmer, covered, 15 minutes.
- Add 5 cups water and bring to a boil. Stir in rice and return to a boil, then cover. Reduce heat to low and cook until water is absorbed and rice is tender, about 20 minutes.
- Remove from heat and let stand, covered, 10 minutes, then fluff with a fork. Discard scallions, thyme, and chile.
