Ingredients

- ☐ 0.5 teaspoon pepper black freshly ground
- ☐ 2 large garlic cloves minced peeled
- ☐ 1 tsp kosher salt
- ☐ 2 lbs lamb rib chops fat trimmed
- ☐ 3.5 oz lamb's lettuce see Notes
- ☐ 1 tablespoon juice of lemon
- ☐ 2 teaspoons lemon zest fresh

- ☐ 4 tablespoons olive oil extra-virgin divided
- ☐ 2 teaspoons oregano fresh minced
- ☐ 1 pound potatoes red yellow
- ☐ 1 small shallots minced peeled
- ☐ 1 tablespoon citrus champagne vinegar
- ☐ 2 teaspoons whole-grain mustard

Equipment

- ☐ bowl
- ☐ oven
- ☐ whisk
- ☐ pot
- ☐ broiler
- ☐ broiler pan

Directions

- ☐ Rinse lamb chops, pat dry, and season with 1 tsp. salt and the pepper. In a bowl, combine garlic, zest, oregano, and 1 tbsp. oil. Rub mixture onto both sides of chops.
- ☐ Put potatoes in a medium pot and add water to cover. Bring to a boil over high heat. Generously salt water, then reduce heat to a simmer and cook potatoes until tender, 8 to 10 minutes.
- ☐ Drain.
- ☐ Meanwhile, whisk together mustard, shallot, lemon juice, and vinegar in a small bowl. Gradually whisk in remaining 3 tbsp. olive oil until dressing is emulsified.
- ☐ Preheat broiler to high. Arrange chops on broiler pan and set it 2 in. from heating element. Broil chops, turning once, until browned and medium-rare inside (cut to test), 8 to 10 minutes.
- ☐ Put lamb's lettuce in a salad bowl and add warm potatoes.
- ☐ Drizzle 3/4 of dressing over salad and toss to coat. Divide salad among plates and top each serving with two chops. Spoon on remaining dressing.
- ☐ Grass-fed lamb: Why buy?

- ☐ Meat raised on grass is showing up more often in grocery stores. It's often expensive, so what makes it worth trying?
- ☐ Healthy animals. Grass is the natural food of cattle, bison, sheep (and lambs); when allowed to munch on pasture, they're eating the way nature intended.
- ☐ Healthy us. Grass-fed (versus standard grain-fed) meat has higher levels of beneficial omega-3 fatty acids, vitamin E, and beta-carotene, and is usually lower in fat.
- ☐ Great for the land. Grazing animals fertilize the pastures as they roam.
- ☐ Great taste. The flavor is often cleaner and more complex than that of grain-fed meat.
- ☐ Our favorite is certified organic meat from Idaho's Lava Lake Lamb (lavalakelamb.com or 208/788-9778), whose animals are raised on thousands of acres near Sun Valley. Lava Lake offers everything from chops to petite lamb roasts, just the right size for two to four people.
