Ingredients

- 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
- 4 large eggs separated (large)
- 1 cup flour all-purpose
- 1 teaspoon juice of lemon freshly squeezed
- 0.3 cup maple syrup warmed pure for serving
- 1 cup milk
- 2 delicious apples cored peeled halved sliced
- 1 pinch salt

- 3 tablespoons sugar
- 2 tablespoons butter unsalted

Equipment

- bowl
- frying pan
- oven
- knife
- whisk
- hand mixer
- measuring cup

Directions

- Preheat the oven to 37
- In a 10 1/2-inch nonstick ovenproof skillet, melt the butter.
- Add the apples, 1 tablespoon of the sugar and the lemon juice and cook over moderately high heat, stirring occasionally, until the apples are golden, about 6 minutes.
- Add the 1/4 cup of maple syrup and simmer over low heat until thickened, about 1 minute.
- Spread the apples in an even layer and remove the pan from the heat.
- In a medium bowl, whisk the flour with the baking powder and salt. In a measuring cup, whisk the egg yolks with the milk and the remaining 2 tablespoons of sugar.
- Whisk the liquid into the dry ingredients.
- In a medium bowl, using a handheld electric mixer, beat the egg whites at medium speed until firm peaks form, about 2 minutes. Fold the beaten whites into the batter and scrape it over the apples; spread the batter to the edge.
- Bake the pancake in the upper third of the oven for about 20 minutes, until it is golden, puffed and set.
- Let the pancake cool for 5 minutes. Run a knife around the edge to loosen the pancake, then invert it onto a serving plate. Replace any apples that may have stuck to the pan.
- Cut the pancake into wedges and serve at once with the warmed maple syrup.
