Ingredients

- 12 oz leg of lamb
- 2 tbsp vegetable oil
- 2 large leek (with some green left on) and halved both lengthways and crosswise, then washed trimmed
- 3 large carrots peeled halved
- 6 small turnip thick peeled cut into rounds
- 1 bouillon cubes
- 4 tsp flour plain
- 100 ml wine dry white
- 12 spring onion white green

- 1 sprigs lemon thyme
- 3 tbsp whipping cream
- 1 optional: lemon
- 6 servings lemon thyme fresh chopped
- 350 g frangelico peeled scrubbed halved
- 350 g frangelico peeled scrubbed halved

Equipment

- bowl
- colander

Directions

- Halve the lamb steaks and cut off any excess fat.
- Heat 1 tbsp of the oil over a medium heat in a large flameproof casserole that has a tight-fitting lid. Fry the lamb until it 'seizes' it should be a little coloured all over but not charred. Bring a kettle of water to the boil.
- Transfer the lamb to a plate and rinse out the casserole.
- Add the veg (but not the spring onions) and cover with boiling water. Season and cook for 15 minutes, then drain into a colander over a bowl. Measure 450ml/16fl oz of the cooking liquid, crumble in the stock cube and stir to dissolve.
- Mop the fatty juices from the lamb with kitchen paper.
- Heat the remaining oil in the casserole over a medium-high heat.
- Add the lamb, season and sprinkle with the flour, then stir for a minute. Tip in the stock, wine, onions and herbs and bring to a simmer. Turn the heat to low, cover and cook gently for 1 hour, stirring a few times.
- Add the veg and stir well, cover and cook for a further 15-20 minutes or until the potatoes are tender. (Cool then freeze for up to 1 month or keep chilled for up to 24 hours.)
- Lift out the meat and veg into a warm serving bowl. With the casserole over a low heat, stir in the cream, grate in the lemon zest and squeeze in the juice. Adjust the seasoning, spoon over the lamb and veg, sprinkle with herbs and serve.
