Ingredients

- 1.3 oz baby spinach packed finely chopped
- 3 slices bacon
- 3 tablespoons breadcrumbs fresh (preferably from a day-old baguette)
- 1 pinch ground pepper
- 2 teaspoons celery minced
- 1 tablespoon parsley fresh finely chopped
- 10 cups kosher salt for baking and serving (3 lb)
- 20 small dozens oysters picked over scrubbed for shell fragents and shells well
- 1 teaspoon rum

- 3 tablespoons spring onion finely chopped
- 3.5 tablespoons butter unsalted
- 0.8 cup watercress packed finely chopped (2 oz before discarding coarse stems)

Equipment

- bowl
- frying pan
- paper towels
- oven
- baking pan

Directions

- Toss together watercress, spinach, scallion greens, parsley, celery, and 1 tablespoon plus 1 teaspoon bread crumbs in a bowl. Melt butter in a 10-inch heavy skillet over moderate heat, then add watercress mixture and cook, stirring, until spinach is wilted, 1 to 2 minutes. Stir in Pernod, cayenne, and salt and pepper to taste, then transfer mixture to a bowl and chill, covered, until cold, about 1 hour.
- Put oven rack in middle position and preheat oven to 450°F.
- While watercress mixture chills, cook bacon in cleaned skillet over moderate heat, turning, until crisp, then drain on paper towels and finely crumble.
- Spread 5 cups kosher salt in a large shallow baking pan (1 inch deep) and nestle oysters (in shells) in it. Spoon watercress mixture evenly over oysters, then top with bacon and sprinkle with remaining tablespoon plus 2 teaspoons bread crumbs.
- Bake oysters until edges of oysters begin to curl and bread crumbs are golden, about 10 minutes.
- Serve warm oysters in shells, nestled in kosher salt (about 5 cups), on a platter.
