Ingredients

- 0.3 ounce yeast dry ( )
- 5.7 cups bread flour for dusting plus more the work surface ( 1 pound 14 ounces)
- 1.3 cups buttermilk well-shaken
- 2 teaspoons fleur del sel
- 0.3 cup honey
- 2 teaspoons kosher salt
- 6 tablespoons butter unsalted plus more for coating the bowl and baking dish cut into small pieces, ( )
- 0.8 cup water (100°F to 110°F)

Equipment

- bowl
- oven
- baking pan
- stand mixer
- kitchen towels

Directions

- Dissolve the yeast in the warm water in a medium bowl; set aside until foamy, about 5 minutes. Stir the buttermilk and honey into the yeast mixture; set aside. Stir together the flour and salt in the bowl of a stand mixer fitted with a dough hook, make a well in the center of the dry ingredients, pour in the yeast mixture, and mix on low speed until evenly incorporated, about 2 minutes. Increase the mixer speed to medium low and add the measured unsalted butter, a few pieces at a time, letting it completely incorporate before adding more.
- Mix the dough until smooth, elastic, and slightly soft, about 10 minutes total. Coat a large bowl with unsalted butter, place the dough in the bowl, and turn to coat. Cover with a damp kitchen towel and let rise in a warm place until doubled in size, about 1 hour. Meanwhile, coat a 13-by-9-inch baking dish with unsalted butter. Once the dough has risen, divide it into 2 equal pieces. On a lightly floured surface, roll out 1 piece into a 12-by-10-inch rectangle, keeping the second piece covered with a towel.
- Cut the rolled rectangle of dough lengthwise into 5 strips.
- Cut each strip into 3 smaller rectangles. Reserve 2 tablespoons of the melted herb butter.
- Spread a heaping 1/2 teaspoon of the remaining herb butter on a rectangle, fold the rectangle in half, and set aside. Repeat with the remaining rectangles. Repeat the entire process with the second piece of dough. Arrange the rolls seam-side down in the prepared baking dish, 6 across and 5 down. Cover with a clean kitchen towel and let rise in a warm place until doubled in size, about 1 hour. Meanwhile, heat the oven to 350°F and arrange a rack in the lower third. Once the dough has risen, brush the reserved 2 tablespoons of herb butter over the top of the rolls and sprinkle with the fleur de sel.
- Bake until the bottoms and tops of the rolls are golden brown, about 40 minutes.
- Remove from the oven, let cool 5 minutes, and serve.
