Ingredients

- 0.5 pound capellini pasta dried
- 0.5 cup crème fraîche sour
- 1 clove garlic minced
- 3 servings salt and fresh-ground pepper
- 3 tablespoons juice of lemon
- 1 tablespoon slivered lemon peel yellow finely (part only)
- 0.3 cup slivered mint leaves fresh
- 2 tablespoons olive oil

0.5 lb sugar snap peas

Equipment

- bowl
- frying pan
- colander

Directions

- In a 4- to 5-quart pan, bring 2 to 3 quarts of water to boiling over high heat.
- Meanwhile, pull off and discard stem ends and strings from peas. Rinse and drain.
- When water boils, add pasta, pushing down into water. Cook until almost tender to bite, about 3 minutes.
- Add peas and cook until they turn bright green, about 2 minutes.
- Drain peas and pasta well in a colander.
- In the pan, combine garlic and butter over high heat, stirring until butter melts.
- Add peas and pasta and mix until pasta stops sizzling, about 1 minute.
- Add about 2 teaspoons of the lemon peel, 2 tablespoons of the lemon juice, and about 1 tablespoon mint to pan.
- Mix.
- Put pasta mixture in wide soup bowls, swirling to make a well in the center. Spoon crme frache into the center of bowls and sprinkle with remaining peel, mint, and lemon juice.
- Add salt and pepper to taste.
