Ingredients

- 2 tablespoons olive oil extra virgin divided
- 0.5 medium onion yellow finely chopped
- 0.3 bell pepper finely chopped
- 1 garlic clove minced
- 2 tablespoons pinenuts
- 1 cup quinoa uncooked
- 2 cups water
- 1 pinch pepper black freshly ground

- 2 tablespoons mint leaves fresh chopped
- 2 tablespoons thai basil fresh chopped
- 1 tablespoon chives fresh chopped (or green onions including the greens)
- 1 small cucumber seeds removed, chopped peeled
- 3 servings salt and pepper

Equipment

- bowl
- pot
- sieve

Directions

- Rinse quinoa if instructed on box: Check your box of quinoa, if it recommends rinsing the quinoa, place the quinoa in a large sieve and rinse it until the water runs clear. (Some brands don't require rinsing.)
- Sauté onion, bell pepper, garlic, pine nuts:
- Heat 1 Tbsp of olive oil on medium high heat in a 1 1/2 to 2 quart pot.
- Add the onion, bell pepper, garlic and pine nuts and cook, stirring occasionally until the onions are translucent, but not browned.
- Add quinoa:
- Add the uncooked quinoa and cook, stirring occasionally for a couple more minutes. You can let some of the quinoa get a little toasted.
- Add water, salt, bring to simmer:
- Add 2 cups of water and one teaspoon of salt. Bring to a boil and reduce the heat to low so that the quinoa and water are simmering while the pot is partially covered (enough to let out some steam).
- Simmer for 20 minutes, or until the quinoa is tender and the water has been absorbed.
- Remove from heat and put into a large serving bowl. Fluff up with a fork.
- Stir in olive oil, mint, basil, chives, cucumber:

- Let cool until just slightly warm, add another tablespoon of olive oil. Stir in chopped mint, basil, chives, and cucumber.
- Add salt and pepper to taste.
- Serve chilled or at room temperature.
