Ingredients

- 1 pound angel hair pasta
- 1 bay leaves
- 0.5 cup wine dry white
- 2 tablespoons parsley fresh chopped
- 2 garlic clove chopped
- 4 pound pd of lobster
- 6 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 large onion sliced

- 0.3 teaspoon saffron threads crumbled
- 1.5 pound vine ripened tomato peeled seeded coarsely chopped

Equipment

- bowl
- frying pan
- oven
- pot
- sieve
- tongs
- colander
- cheesecloth

Directions

- Fill an 8-quart pot three fourths full with salted water and bring to a boil. Plunge 2 lobsters headfirst into water and boil, covered, 3 minutes.
- Transfer with tongs to a colander to cool. Repeat with remaining 2 lobsters in same manner.
- When lobster is cool enough to handle, remove meat from shells, catching juices in a separate bowl.
- Add shells to bowl with juices.
- Cut meat into 1-inch pieces and chill lobster, covered.
- Stir together wine and saffron and let mixture steep 10 minutes. Bring wine mixture, 14 cups water, and lobster shells with juices to a boil in 8-quart pot. Boil until liquid is reduced to about 8 cups, about 1 hour. Line a sieve with cheesecloth and set over a bowl.
- Pour stock through sieve, then discard solids.
- While stock reduces, heat 2 tablespoons oil in a heavy skillet over low heat until hot, then cook onion with bay leaf until onion is very soft and browned, about 45 minutes.
- Add tomatoes and garlic and cook, stirring frequently, until sofregit is very thick, about 15 minutes. Discard bay leaf.
- Preheat oven to 400°F.

- Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a cassola or an ovenproof 12-inch heavy skillet over moderately low heat until hot but not smoking, then cook pasta in 4 batches, stirring, until golden brown.
- Transfer pasta to a bowl as browned and add an additional tablespoon oil for each batch.
- When all of pasta is browned, return to pan and stir in sofregit and 4 cups stock (if using a cassola, use 4Böps stock; your need more liquid because of the dish's straight sides). Reserve remaining stock for another use. Bring pasta mixture to a simmer, then continue to simmer, covered, 4 minutes. Stir in reserved lobster and season with salt and pepper.
- Transfer pan, uncovered, to middle of oven and bake 10 minutes, or until liquid is absorbed and top of pasta is crisp. Stir in parsley.
- Lobster and stock may be prepared 1 day ahead, cooled completely, then chilled, covered.
•Leftover stock, which is wonderful for lobster bisque or as a base for a sauce armoricaine, keeps, frozen, 3 months. •Aifregit can be made 1 day ahead and chilled, covered.
