Ingredients

- 4 sheets gelatin powder
- 650 g cherries
- 2 tbsp jam
- 1 portugese rolls
- 3 tbsp sherry dry
- 70 g amaretti cookies crushed
- 1 vanilla pod split
- 8 egg yolk
- 50 g brown sugar

- 4 tsp flour plain
- 568 ml double cream
- 284 ml double cream
- 50 g pistachios unsalted chopped
- 30 g amaretti cookies crushed
- 1 handful physalis (Cape gooseberries)

Equipment

- bowl
- frying pan
- knife
- whisk
- wooden spoon

Directions

- First, make the jelly. Soak the gelatine leaves in cold water until floppy, then drain. Strain off the juice from the cherries into a jug you should have around 350–400ml.
- Put the juice and the redcurrant jelly in a pan, stirring until it boils and the redcurrant jelly has melted. Take off the heat, cool for a few mins, then stir in the gelatine until it dissolves.
- Pour into a shallow pan or dish to cool, then chill until set.
- For the custard, scrape the vanilla seeds from the pod into a large bowl.
- Add the egg yolks, 40g sugar and the flour, then whisk until pale and creamy.
- Pour the cream into a medium-size pan and bring just to the boil. Gradually whisk the cream into the yolk mix. Wipe out the pan, then return the mixture to it. Cook slowly over a low heat, stirring with a wooden spoon until thickened take extra care to stir well at the edges of the pan. Cool, stirring every so often.
- To assemble the trifle, slice the Swiss roll into 8 pieces and arrange on the base and around the inside of a large glass serving bowl.
- Sprinkle with the sherry, if using.

- Turn the jelly out onto a board and chop with a sharp knife. Scatter the drained cherries and chopped jelly on top of the Swiss roll, then sprinkle over the crushed amaretti.
- Pour the cooled custard over the biscuits, then return to the fridge until cold (about 2 hrs). For the topping, whip the cream to soft peaks with 1 tbsp sugar, then spoon or pipe it over the custard. The trifle can be covered and chilled for up to 2 days at this point.
- To serve, sprinkle over the pistachios and remaining amaretti. Push back the leaves of the physalis and poke the fruit into the cream.
