Ingredients

- 0.5 cup flour
- 18 tablespoons butter chilled divided cut into tablespoon-size pieces, ()
- 1 cup wine dry white
- 2 large eggs
- 2 teaspoons chives fresh chopped
- 0.3 cup thyme sprigs fresh
- 0.3 cup juice of lemon fresh
- 1 cup chicken broth
- 2 cups panko bread crumbs (Japanese breadcrumbs)

- 0.3 cup shallots chopped
- 24 ounces ground veal
- 2 tablespoons whipping cream

Equipment

- bowl
- frying pan
- baking sheet
- oven
- whisk

Directions

- Sprinkle veal with salt and pepper.
- Place panko in large shallow bowl.
- Place flour in medium bowl. Beat eggs just to blend in another medium bowl. Working in batches, coat veal cutlets in flour, then egg, then panko, pressing gently to adhere.
- Place on rimmed baking sheet. (Can be prepared 2 hours ahead. Cover and chill.)
- Place wine, broth, lemon juice, thyme, and shallots in heavy large skillet. Cook over medium heat until liquid is reduced almost to glaze, about 10 minutes.
- Add 10 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons at a time, whisking constantly and blending well between additions.
- Whisk in cream.
- Remove from heat. Cover to keep sauce warm.
- Preheat oven to 200°F. Melt 2 tablespoons butter in heavy large skillet over medium-high heat. Working in batches and adding more butter by tablespoonfuls as needed, cook veal until brown and cooked through, about 2 minutes per side.
- Transfer to another rimmed baking sheet and place in oven to keep warm.
- Gently rewarm sauce over medium-low heat, stirring constantly. Divide veal among 4 plates.
- Drizzle sauce over veal, sprinkle with chives, and serve.
- *Available at many supermarkets and at Asian markets.
